Structure of ILP Sub-Fund

The ILP sub-fund is a feeder fund investing in the sub-fund of DWS Global. DWS Global (the "Fund") is an investment fund (fonds commun de placement) established in the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg. The Fund is in the form of an umbrella fund organised under Part I of the Luxembourg law on Undertakings for Collective Investment of 17 December 2010 ("Law of 17 December 2010"). It complies with Directive 2009/65/EC (UCITS) and the Grand-Ducal Regulation of 8 February 2008 pertaining to the amended law of 20 December 2002 on Undertakings for Collective Investment¹ ("Ordinance of the Grand Duchy dated 8 February 2008") via which Directive 2007/16/EC² ("Directive 2007/16/EC") was implemented.

The current management regulations of the Fund (together with changes thereto) (the "Management Regulations") was filed at the clerk's office of the Luxembourg District Court, and whose filing memorandum is published in the Mémorial, Recueil des Sociétés et Associations, the official gazette of the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg. The Luxembourg Sales Prospectus and the Management Regulations may be inspected at the business office of the Singapore Representative.

The Fund allows investors to be offered a choice of investments in one or more sub-funds. As regards the legal relationships of the holders of Shares (the "Shareholders") among themselves, each sub-fund is treated as a separate entity and in relation to third parties, each sub-fund is a separate portfolio and its assets are only liable for the liabilities and payment obligations involving that sub-fund.

Please refer to the section on "Structure of the Fund" in the DWS Global Singapore Prospectus for further information on the structure of DWS Global.

The units in the ILP sub-fund are not Excluded Investment Products.

Soft Commissions and Commission Sharing

The Management Company and the Fund Manager shall submit buy and sell orders for securities and financial instruments directly to brokers and traders for the account of the Fund or the Sub-Fund. It concludes agreements with brokers and traders at customary market conditions, which are consistent with first-class execution standards. Moreover, the Management Company and Fund Manager currently accept and conclude agreements, within the framework of which they can claim and utilise the valuable benefits offered by brokers and traders (otherwise known as "soft dollars").

The Management Company and the Fund Manager can conclude agreements with selected brokers, in the framework of which the relevant broker forwards part of the payment received by him in accordance with the relevant agreement, paid by the Management Company or the Fund Manager for the acquisition or sale of assets, either directly or after a delay to third parties who then render research or analysis services for the Management Company or the Fund Manager. These are used by the Management Company and the Fund Manager for the purpose of administering or managing the Fund or the Sub-Fund (so-called commission sharing agreements).

The factors taken into account in the selection of brokers, provisions on the receipt of soft dollars and arrangements for commission sharing are set out in the sections headed "Buy and sell orders for securities and financial instruments" and "Commission sharing" in the Luxembourg Sales Prospectus.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

Investors should refer to the section headed "Potential conflicts of interest" in the Luxembourg Sales Prospectus for potential conflicts of interest that may arise in relation to the Sub-Fund.

Within the scope of and in compliance with the applicable procedures and measures for conflict management, the Management Company, Management Company Board of Directors, the management, the fund manager, the designated sales agents and persons authorized to carry out sales activities, the Custodian, if applicable the investment advisor, the administrator, the shareholders, as well as all subsidiaries, affiliated companies, representatives or agents of the aforementioned entities and persons ("Associated Persons"):

a) conduct among themselves or for the fund financial and banking transactions or other transactions or enter into the corresponding contracts, including those that are directed at investments in securities or at investments by an Associated Person in a company or undertaking, such investment being a constituent part of the respective sub-fund's assets, or be involved in such contracts or transactions; and/or

b) for their own accounts or for the accounts of third parties, invest in shares, securities or assets of the same type as the components of the respective sub-fund's assets and trade in them; and/or

c) in their own names or in the names of third parties, participate in the purchase or sale of securities or other investments from or to the Investment Company, through or jointly with the fund manager, the designated sales agents and persons appointed to carry out sales activities, the Custodian, the investment advisor, or a subsidiary, an affiliated company, representative or agent of these.

Assets of the respective sub-fund in the form of liquid assets or securities may be deposited with an Associated Person in accordance with the legal provisions governing the Custodian. Liquid assets of the respective sub-fund may be invested in certificates of deposit issued by an Associated Person or in bank deposits offered by an Associated Person. Banking or comparable transactions may also be conducted with or through an Associated Person. Companies in the Deutsche Bank Group and/or employees, representatives, affiliated companies or subsidiaries of companies in the Deutsche Bank Group (“DB Group Members”) may be counterparties in the Investment Company’s derivatives transactions or derivatives contracts (“Counterparty”). Furthermore, in some cases a Counterparty may be required to evaluate such derivatives transactions or derivatives contracts. Such evaluations may constitute the basis for calculating the value of particular assets of the respective sub-fund. The board of directors of the Investment Company is aware that DB Group Members may possibly be involved in a conflict of interest if they act as Counterparty and/or provide information of this type. The evaluation will be adjusted and carried out in a manner that is verifiable. However, the board of directors of the Investment Company believes that such conflicts can be handled appropriately and assumes that the Counterparty possesses the aptitude and competence to perform such evaluations.

In accordance with the respective terms agreed, DB Group Members may act as directors, sales agents and sub-agents, custodians, fund managers or investment advisors, and may offer to provide financial and banking transactions to the Management Company. The board of directors of the Investment Company is aware that conflicts of interest may arise due to the functions that DB Group Members perform in relation to the Investment Company. In respect of such eventualities, each DB Group Member has undertaken to endeavor, to a reasonable extent, to resolve such conflicts of interest equitably (with regard to the Members’ respective duties and responsibilities), and to ensure that the interests of the Investment Company and of the shareholders are not adversely affected. The board of directors of the Investment Company believes that DB Group Members possess the required aptitude and competence to perform such duties.

The board of directors of the Investment Company believes that the interests of the Investment Company might conflict with those of the entities mentioned above. The Investment Company has taken reasonable steps to avoid conflicts of interest. In the event of unavoidable conflicts of interest, the Management Company of the Investment Company will endeavor to resolve such conflicts in favor of the sub-fund(s).

For each sub-fund, transactions involving the respective sub-fund’s assets may be conducted with or between Associated Persons, provided that such transactions are in the best interests of the investors.
